PRETORIA INTERNATIONAL SHOW 2009: RESULTS 28 AUGUST – 6 SEPTEMBER 2009

The South African National Defence Force was represented by Chief Joint Operations, South African Army, South African Air Force, South African Navy, South African Military Health Services, Special Forces, Director Personnel Acquisition, as well as Defence Reserves at the Pretoria International Show 2009.

The South African Army formed part of the greater South African National Defence Force indoor and outdoor exhibition and placed its focus on recruitment, training and the role that the South African Army plays in support of government policy to support peace missions.

The show attracted more than 113 861 visitors over the duration of ten days.

During the Pretoria International Show 2009 Prize-giving Ceremony that was hosted on 3 September 2009, the South African National Defence Force obtained the following awards:

- Golden Award for the Commercial and Industrial Division for both indoor and outdoor exhibitions.
- The South African National Defence Force was awarded the first overall position of all exhibitors participating in the Pretoria International Show 2009.

The first overall position was granted to the South African National Defence Force for the first time in the 70 year's history since the existence of the Pretoria International Show.

The professionalism, positive attitude, good discipline and positive image portrayed by all members involved in the South African National Defence Force exhibition, resulted in receiving awards unanimously.

During the South African Army's Certificate Ceremony on 7 September 2009, Major General L. Rudman (Chief Army Corporate Services) expressed his gratitude and appreciation on behalf of the Chief of the South African Army for their dedication during the Pretoria International Show 2009.
